

Documentary Screening

Magee Clegg
Fulbright Scholar
Philippines 2010

ELC American Corner Event

Bio

Magee Clegg received his Bachelor of Arts in Media Studies in 2009 from Pitzer College, a member of the Claremont Colleges located in Southern California.

While attending Pitzer, Magee founded a documentary film group called Fast Cloud Films to explore cross-cultural social issues. During the summer of 2008, Magee traveled to India to film the award-winning short documentary 'A Box with a View', which explores the influence of cable television in rural South India.

Rice is Life

The Philippines is the largest importer of rice in the world. For decades their Government has set their sites on achieving self-sufficiency, yet the gap between demand and domestic production continues to grow. Some believe that if the Department of Agriculture continues down this path they will lead the Philippines further into poverty and food insecurity.

Magee Clegg has been exploring this issue through his documentary film 'Rice is Life'. He will show clips from his film, discuss the issues in his film, describe his methods, and explain his overall experience as a Fulbright Scholar in the Philippines. There will be time for a Q&A session after the screening.
